

TauRis Clock Race Setup

Obtain the club cradle and cup

Connect the cup to the cradle

Connect power supply to the cradle

Place clock in cradle

Press 7

Press #

Press 7

Enter the race number

Press #

Members place the racing pigeon let (that has the micro chip band) into the cup

Members read out loud the band number from the bird

The race official declares the bird to be a hen or a cock

The member places the bird into the assigned racing crate

When all birds have been scanned the clock is removed from the cradle and the next clock put until all flyers birds have been scanned.